

Mary Jo Smith
Section 23345

Information about Web Pages Found through Two Search Engines and a Meta-Search Tool

Research topic: What caused early people to begin the cultivation of plants?

Web resource found using AllTheWeb

1. Author responsible for the information: Don Wiss
2. Title of the page: www.PaleoDiet.com – The Paleolithic Diet Page: What the Hunter/Gatherers Ate
3. Date or latest revision/update date: 13 August 2003
4. Name of sponsoring organization: none given
5. Date of access: 18 August 2003
6. URL is <http://www.panix.com/~paleodiet/>

Web resource found using Google

1. Author: Paul Gepts
2. Title of page: Evolution of Crop Plants
3. Date of page, or last update: 11 March 2003
4. Name of sponsoring organization: Dept. of Agronomy and Range Science, University of California, Davis
5. Date of access: 18 August 2003
6. URL: <http://agronomy.ucdavis.edu/gepts/pb143.htm>

Web resource found using a meta-search tool

1. Meta-search tool used: Dogpile
2. Search statement: +domestication +plants
3. Citation:

Winter, B. J. Paleo-ethno-botany. 7 August 2002. Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology,
Department of Archaeology, Simon Fraser University, 18 August 2003
<<http://www.sfu.ca/archaeology/museum/peb/plethbot.html>>